

TEXAS PANHANDLE BUILDERS ASSOCIATION

January 1999 – Present

Member

Chartered in 1946 to represent 26 counties in Texas, the Texas Panhandle Builders Association (TPBA) is the second oldest association in the state of Texas. The TPBA is a professional, non-profit organization of home builders, developers, remodelers, and businesses associated with the building industry. The Texas Panhandle Builders Association is affiliated with the National Association of Home Builders and the Texas Association of Builders and strives to enhance the building industry by promoting professional and ethical conduct in providing quality construction and the American Dream. We serve our members and communities through education, information and networking opportunities for the advancement of the building industry.

REMODELORS™ COUNCIL

January 2000 – Present

Member

Remodelors™ Council is represented in Potter and Randall counties in Texas, The Remodelors™ Council is a group of professional remodelers associated within the building industry with an affiliation with the Texas Panhandle Builders Association who strives to enhance the building industry by promoting professional and ethical conduct in providing quality construction. We serve our members and communities through education, information and networking opportunities for the advancement of the building industry.